

BRANDON HARDESTY

VICE PRESIDENT

Brandon is an accomplished sales director with over 20 years' experience in Fortune 500 company sales, marketing and strategy. In his role, Brandon is responsible for providing management consultation, strategic planning, coaching and sales leadership to MarshBerry's portfolio of insurance brokerage clients and carriers.

Prior to MarshBerry, Brandon worked for Hub International Limited where he acted as the Sales Director - Commercial Programs. In this role, he was charged with hiring and expediting the qualification process of producers, managing and deepening carrier partner relationships, and growing and retaining a $120M+ book of business. Also during his time at Hub, he developed programs and tools to drive organic growth as the National Business Development Manager for Employee Benefits.

Brandon also worked at Allstate-Ivantage Select Agency, Hays Companies and Wells Fargo all in key business development roles.

Brandon has a Bachelor of Liberal Arts & Science degree from the University of Illinois. During his spare-time he enjoys listening to music, Chicago sports, golfing and biking with his sons.
