

Speaker Bio: Marla Cormier

Bringing over 20 years of experience in Learning & Development, Marla Cormier has developed leadership training and emerging leader programs for some of the most recognizable names on The Las Vegas Strip including The Venetian and Palazzo, MGM Grand, and Mandalay Bay, to small, high-tech internet startups, and long-time global industry leaders like Caterpillar. Marla uses full-engagement learning so that participants are involved during keynotes and workshops, which is how she delivers high-impact results. Marla ensures that every participant walks away with skills they can implement that day, and behaviors they can practice over time, building consistency and strengthening their leadership brand. Marla holds a Bachelor's Degree in Education and a Master's Degree in Organizational Management. She went into education with the belief that the more knowledge a person has, the better choices they can make and the better life they can create. That is what continues to fuel her love of training, the knowledge that she is helping people at various points in their careers to enjoy their work more by growing their skills and abilities into further success.

Marla has been featured in articles for Authority Magazine, sharing her insights on topics from attracting and retaining top talent, to best practices for public speaking. She lives in McKinney, Texas with her husband, Andy, and two dogs, Peanut and Boomer.